

Here's what you get with The Diversity Coach™:

- Confidence in knowing that we have a 100% success record.
  - We recently surveyed our top ten clients and learned that they rate our support capability at 9.8 on a 10 point scale. One client even had an independent project evaluation performed. Our work was given stellar endorsement.
- A way to develop and simplify your diversity management strategies.
  - Rather than help you produce yet another voluminous strategic plan that gets bound and stored, we introduce our clients to a simplified model designed to make the diversity management strategy more accessible and understood by every level in the company.
- An implementation process that is disciplined, diligent and directed.
  - Most practitioners agree that diversity management is still an emerging field. We help our clients by bringing discipline to the field of diversity management.
- A learning platform with an average effectiveness rating of 4.8 (5.0 scale).
  - Reduce the risk and increase the effectiveness of your diversity management learning platform. Valuing Differences™ has proven to be a life changing event for most participants. Managing Differently™ escorts managers into the world of 21st century people management. They are both provocative and fun.
- The capacity and capability to get 100% from all employees.
  - This is not an idle platitude. We can deliver on this promise when clients agree to follow the process.

Now that you have learned to get diversity, let us show you how to get value from diversity. When you get serious about diversity management as a core business strategy, contact us. Let The Diversity Coach™ help you get it done!
